This is a special 2 day class just added due to demand!! Her 3 day class is full for this summer.

Dianna is one of only 6 Canadians to be awarded the status of Master Pastel Artist of Canada and the only artist anywhere to carry this distinction as well as that of Premier Pastelist of Canada.

In the 20 years since Dianna received an invitation to display her work for the Queen and members of the 1987 Commonwealth Conference she has been the recipient of numerous National and International awards.

Last year was, to date, the pinnacle of her success when 44 pastel societies from around the world were invited to participate in a truly global competition. Dianna's painting "Orange Bowl" took the gold home for Canada and with it, invitations to teach workshops in Ireland, Great Britain and the United States.
