Coming Right Up:

Hyatt Moore "How to Start a Painting" Friday June 18

There are three challenges to making a painting--how to start, what to do in the middle, and when to know when to stop. Master those, and you can paint! We'll look at a few approaches to starting, and I'll demonstrate one I've found particularly useful.

Hyatt Moore has had a varied career as an artist, writer and speaker. From beginnings as art director at Surfer Magazine to living and working internationally, he is now a full-time painter. His work is represented in various galleries, near and abroad. For the wide variety of subject matter and approaches see www.hyattmoore.com.

Don't miss his workshop here July 10 & 11!!
